

Title: Field Technician

Compensation based on experience; training, service van, commission

Employment type: full-time

Seeking an experienced Field Service Mechanic

Responsibilities:

As Field Technician you will be maintaining, servicing and supporting material handling equipment, systems and products at the customer locations.

Additional responsibilities of the Field Technician include:

- Driving to customer site, diagnosing, trouble-shooting and repairing forklift and other equipment while maintaining positive customer relations
- Performing preventive maintenance on equipment at the customer's facilities
- Completing all required paperwork and time records accurately and completely
- Accounting for all parts, materials, and consumables used as required
- Driving and working safely at all times
- Ability to work without supervision.

Job Requirements:

Must have good mechanical aptitude and ability, with knowledge of industrial electricity and good customer relations skills.

Additional requirements of the Field Technician include:

- High School Diploma or GED
- Experience in a related field or a graduate from a trade school
- Forklift, automotive or related industrial, aviation or military experience
- Valid Driver's License
- Aerial equipment experience a plus